APPLICATION

I am applying for a language examination waiver in the Admission Process for the Ph.D. Programme.

Reasons (tick as appropriate, or delete what is not relevant):

- A. I spent at least two years of my previous education at secondary or university level with English as the sole language of instruction in one of the following countries: Australia, Canada, India, Ireland, Malta, New Zealand, South Africa, UK or USA.
- B. I do not need to take the language examination of English as I have already passed one of the following exams (in some cases we recognize the exam only with a minimum score or level):

- General State Language Examination in English in the Czech Republic
- examination in English at Charles University, Faculty of Mathematics and Physics
- TOEFL (paper) – 550 points
- TOEFL (computer) – 213 points
- TOEFL (internet) – 80 points
- IELTS – 7 points
- C2 Proficiency (formerly known as CPE) – Pass
- C1 Advanced (formerly known as CAE) – Pass
- B2 First (formerly known as FCE) – Grade A
- ESOL International (C1 – C2)
- TELC (The European Language Certificates) – TELC English C1 – Pass
- UNiCert English for Mathematicians: Level C1 – level C1
- Melab – 77 points
- Examination for the Certificate of Proficiency in English (ECPE) – Pass
- Test of English for International Communication (TOEIC) – 605 points

Application for a language examination waiver and submission of proof of compliance of the conditions cited above (with the exception of the examination NJAZ091 which is recorded by the faculty) is possible not later than May 31, 2024.

Date: May 31, 2024
